

College of Arts and Humanities
Academic Learning Compacts

Music - B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. The Music Department's BA students will demonstrate appropriate musical performance skills.
2. BA students will demonstrate competency with appropriate music technology software.
3. The Music Department's BA graduates will demonstrate knowledge of basic repertoire (accuracy).
4. BA students will be able to demonstrate critical thinking skills as part of a research project.
5. BA students will demonstrate the ability to critically study (analyze) musical works.
6. BA students will demonstrate the ability to achieve undergraduate excellence through scholarly and research activities.
7. BA students will effectively convey knowledge about music.
8. Graduates will attain a satisfactory level of music literacy development in keyboard skills.

Critical Thinking

1. The Music Department's BA students will demonstrate appropriate musical performance skills.
2. BA students will demonstrate competency with appropriate music technology software.
3. BA students will be able to demonstrate critical thinking skills as part of a research project.
4. BA students will demonstrate the ability to critically study (analyze) musical works.
5. BA students will demonstrate the ability to achieve undergraduate excellence through scholarly and research activities.
6. BA students will effectively convey knowledge about music.

Communication

1. BA students will be able to demonstrate critical thinking skills as part of a research project.
2. BA students will demonstrate the ability to critically study (analyze) musical works.
3. BA students will demonstrate the ability to achieve undergraduate excellence through scholarly and research activities.
4. BA students will effectively convey knowledge about music.

Assessment of Music - B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Projects
- Competition outcomes
- Papers
- Performance ratings
- Presentations