

College of Business Administration
Academic Learning Compacts

Accounting - B.S.B.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Accounting majors will be able to model accounting information systems.
2. Accounting majors will calculate and interpret major indicators of financial performance.
3. Accounting majors will assess the integrity of financial information.
4. Accounting majors will demonstrate knowledge of the roles and responsibilities of the professional accountant in society.
5. Accounting majors will understand the concepts and mechanics of each financial statement and be able to articulate how information flows through to each of the statements.
6. Accounting majors will demonstrate comprehension of technical auditing concepts.

Critical Thinking

1. Accounting majors will calculate and interpret major indicators of financial performance.
2. Accounting majors will analyze and use accounting information for decision-making purposes.

Communication

1. Accounting majors will analyze and effectively communicate information regarding accounting issues using a written format.
2. Accounting majors will understand the concepts and mechanics of each financial statement and be able to articulate how information flows through to each of the statements.

Assessment of Accounting - B.S.B.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Exams
- Projects
- Written papers
- Case studies