Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Political Science Knowledge.
   Program graduates will demonstrate knowledge of political science including political institutions, processes, beliefs, attitudes and behaviors.

   Program graduates will demonstrate knowledge of United States government and politics.

3. International Relations and Comparative Politics Knowledge.
   Program graduates will demonstrate knowledge of international relations and comparative politics.

   Program graduates will demonstrate knowledge of political theory and philosophy.

Critical Thinking

1. Critical Thinking.
   Students will demonstrate the ability to think critically about politics.

2. Interpreting Research.
   Students will demonstrate the ability to interpret research results.

Communication

1. Writing Skills.
   Students will demonstrate the ability to write clearly about politics and policy.

2. Scientific Literacy.
   Students will demonstrate the ability to understand the vocabulary of political science related to research methodology and data analysis.

Assessment of Political Science - B.A. Outcomes
These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:
• Tests
• Projects
• Papers
• Critiques
• Presentations